

Beckmead Family of Schools Curriculum InformationGCSE English

	Autumn	Spring	Summer
Year 10 (Examination Summer 2017)	Writing – to persuade and describe	Reading – Novel ‘Lord of the Flies’ by William Golding	Reading – Use of AQA reading pack to introduce the study of English Language – Viewpoints and Perspectives
	Assessment: Completion of ‘Controlled Assessment’ titled: Explore some of the ways writers present strong feelings and or attitudes about the horror/dangerous nature of war.	Assessment: Completion of ‘Controlled Assessment’ titled: How does Shakespeare give the audience a sense of foreboding for the fate of Romeo and Juliet throughout the play?	Assessment: Time management. Practice past AQA GCSE English papers.

Beckmead Family of Schools Curriculum InformationGCSE English

	Autumn	Spring	Summer
Year 11 (Examination Summer 2017)	Writing and Spoken Language	Exam Preparation	Exam Preparation
	Assessment: Writing = Writing to present a point of view. Spoken Language – Planning = question and answer techniques. Presentation skills. Skills development: Sense of audience, purpose and form. Bridging the gap between reading and writing – structure, organisation, point of view, methods to convey meaning etc. Presenting effectively and confidently for designated audience. Horror/dangerous nature of war.	Assessment: Skills development: Time management. Practice AQA GCSE Specimen papers.	Assessment: Skills development: Time management. Practice AQA GCSE Specimen papers.

For further information, please contact your child's English teacher or Head of School